All Souls Day

To the Priests, Deacons, Religious, Curia and Principals of the Diocese of Peoria,

We write today as Illinois is finding a rise in positivity in the regions of the State. From the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, we have continually strived to follow the advice of

5. The Offices of the Spalding Pastoral Center remains open. Should it become necessary to work remotely, we will do so with alternate days scheduled for various departments to be on-site in the building.

6. The guidelines currently in place for public worship remain unchanged. As a result, we will continue to hold our public worship services through the use of live streaming. We will continue to have a limited number of people in the sanctuary. We will continue to have a limited number of people in the sanctuary.

We realize that making our best judgment during this current crisis is a difficult task. Our lives are full of uncertainty and we are all facing a very difficult and challenging and unprecedented times. We are the journeyer along a winding, thought-provoking, and sometimes scary road. We are all in this together and we are all in this together. We are all in this together and we are all in this together.

Our lives are full of uncertainty and we are all facing a very difficult and challenging and unprecedented times. We are the journeyer along a winding, thought-provoking, and sometimes scary road. We are all in this together and we are all in this together.

Altogether yours in Christ,
